Children, youth and families training seminar - Sunday 1 November 11.45am

We have a commitment to creating churches that are safe worshipping communities for everyone - including children and youth. This Sunday there will be a Children, youth and families training seminar in the church after morning tea. All ministry leaders (including teenage leaders) with a role in caring for children and youth are urged to attend. The seminar will finish about 1.30pm and will include lunch.

Retreat - SPIRIT TO SPIRIT

Learning to listen to the Holy Spirit.

Saturday 5th December 2026
10.45am -3.15pm

At St Johns Anglican Church, 563 Fergusson Drive, Trentham.
The first of three quarterly simple one day retreats, each teaching two different ways to listen, engage and respond to the Holy Spirit, ending with a question discussion time, and short communion.
Walking with God in Christ involves being attentive to what the Holy Spirit is saying to our spirit as he leads us to be more like the loving God we know through Jesus.
Bring your Bible, note book and/or drawing pad and colours, mobile phone, Spotify app if you have one, and something for a shared lunch table.
Coffee and tea will be provided.
Book in advance through the retreat leader Rev David Pearson, (retired.) via email dpearson5571@gmail.com
Questions to 0273685955
A $5 retreat fee will be collected on the day.

November fundraising events

Donations are needed for the final stage of the vicarage build: landscaping (to cover the cost of the fencing, paving and planting). We have two fundraiser events this month, proceedings going towards the vicarage

Quiz Night: Wednesday 11 November at The Tote, 7pm. Tickets $10 per person. Form a team and join in the fun. Contact David Joplin for more details

Movie Night: Look out for the details of an upcoming movie night.

Christmas Boxes

We are going to have a collection for the Wellington City Mission Christmas Star boxes. The donated goods are used to stock the Mission's Christmas Toy Store and Social Supermarket, ensuring every parent can put toys under the tree, and kai on the table.
All donated food will go to the Mission's special Christmas day hampers and Social Supermarket, giving shoppers the dignity of choosing their own food for their dinner table.
Toys will go into their pop-up free Christmas Toy Store, allowing parents to choose the gifts they know their children will love. Please not wrap your donations so they can be sorted properly at the Mission. We will have a list available at the back of the Church with suggested items.If you have any questions please see David Kendall.
